

Violence in Venezuela

Thesis: Although many Venezuelans have been protesting due to shortages of food and violence between pro- and anti-government forces, the death toll has recently risen, because the widespread feeling of insecurity has led to attempts at removing President Nicolas Maduro from office.

Who is protesting?

- ❖ students
- ❖ people who want more security
- ❖ family and friends of the arrested
- ❖ anti-government supporters

Why are they protesting?

- ❖ insecurity in the country
- ❖ shortages of food and money
- ❖ anti-government

Where are they protesting?

- ❖ Protests started in the west of the country and now are taking place all over the country but many very violent protests took place in the capital

Caracas.

